8 Our liability for loss or damage

- 8.1 We do not know the value of Your goods therefore We limit Our liability to a fixed limit per item. The amount of liability We accept under this agreement is reflected in Our charges for the work. REMOVAL INSURANCE WITH “REMOVERS & GENERAL”

The “Removers & General” Policy is a dedicated insurance policy for Removal and Storage contractors to cover their customers effects against most risks whilst they are moving and storing them. The notes below explain the principles of the insurance, and are for guidance only. They do not form part of the insurance policy. The Summary on the reverse of this document contains the principal Terms and Conditions of the Insurance held by your chosen Removal and Storage Company. These Terms and Conditions will form the basis of the Insurance Cover you will benefit from as long as you declare the value of your effects to the Removal and Storage Company and pay any additional fees they require.

Please read the Terms and Conditions carefully before proceeding

Why should I take out Insurance?

Your Removers will take every care to protect your goods. Unfortunately accidents can occur. This is why you are recommended to take advantage of the special arrangements made with leading insurance companies who underwrite the Removers and General policy. If you do not wish to benefit from the insurance then any responsibility the Removers may have to you for loss or damage will be governed by their Trading Conditions which may limit both the circumstances and amounts available for compensation.

Who are the Insurers?

The Removers and General policy is underwritten by Lonham Marine Underwriters Ltd

How do I arrange Insurance?

This is quite simple. All you have to do is to accept the option shown on the Remover’s estimate or quotation form, check that you have inserted a correct valuation for your effects, and to pay the Removers charges in full. This document then becomes your confirmation of insurance.

How do I value my Goods?

The insurance is not “new for old” but on an indemnity basis which means that you must declare the value your goods for their current used value taking into account their condition and age. If you do not declare a value then insurance cover for your goods will be limited to £5,000. It is essential that you do not under value your goods as the settlement of any claim may be reduced.

Please do not ask your Remover for guidance about your valuation. They are not valuers, and the responsibility for declaring the sum insured is yours

What will Insurers pay for?

The insurance covers loss or damage to your goods whilst in the care of the Removers during removal and/or storage. Cover ceases as soon as your goods are delivered to you.

Storage only : If you do not require collection and delivery from store, only utilising the storage facility, then cover whilst in store is restricted and will not include Theft or Accidental Loss or Damage.

Are there any Exclusions?

Yes. Every insurance policy has exclusions. There are certain goods that cannot be accepted for insurance and certain eventualities which are not insured. These exclusions and restrictions are clearly listed overleaf and you are recommended to familiarise yourself with these before proceeding.

Your attention is particularly drawn to the following exclusions and conditions, which are frequently misunderstood :-

- Exclusions 6 and 7, which limit Insurer’s liability for goods which you pack yourself.
- Exclusion 8, which excludes the unexplained failure of electrical, electronic or mechanical items unless they have also suffered external physical damage.
- The “Pairs and Sets” condition, which limits policy liability to the value of a damaged item without reference to its value within the pair or set of which it is part.

All Exclusions and Conditions within the policy are of equal standing.

What if I have a claim?

You should report any loss or damage to your Remover as soon as possible and no later than 7 days after taking delivery. You will be issued with a claim form to be returned to the Remover, who will send it to the insurers claims settling agents, Removal Claims Service.

Claim notification period

The insurance requires that claims be notified to the Remover within seven days of delivery. Loss or damage noticed at the time of delivery should be notified at that time. Any other item of claim should be notified within seven days.

This notification period is important both for you and insurers. It is essential that a close link is maintained between a claim and the incident giving rise to that claim. Where a claim is notified late, it may be more difficult for insurers to connect your claim to the removal &/or storage.

How will my claim be assessed?

Your claim will be dealt with in accordance with the Terms and Conditions printed overleaf. The basis of settlement will be the cost of replacement, repair or monetary compensation at insurers option. In calculating a settlement the current used value of the lost or damaged item, after deduction for age, wear and tear will be taken into account.

If a policy excess is shown in the conditions overleaf, it will be deducted from your claim settlement.

If you need to submit a claim...

Your claim will be dealt with as quickly as possible. You can help by:

- Only claiming for items and loss or damage covered by the policy,
- Being realistic with the amounts you are claiming, and
- Submitting repair estimates with your claim form.

CUSTOMER CARE

Both Insurers and their claims settling agents, Removal Claims Services make every effort to provide a good service to customers taking advantage of this Insurance. If on any occasion service falls below the standard you would expect the procedure below explains what you should do. For the most efficient handling of your complaint, you should follow this procedure

1. Contact the person dealing with the matter outlining the nature of the problem.
2. If you remain dissatisfied, write to the Customer Care Director of Removal Claims Service who will give the matter his personal attention.
3. Should the matter still not be resolved to your satisfaction Removal Claims Service will provide you with details of the address and the person to contact at the Insurers.

If, after following the above procedure, your complaint has not been resolved to your satisfaction, you may have the right to refer the matter to the Financial Ombudsman Service at : South Quay Plaza, 183 Marsh Wall, London E14 9SR

CONDITIONS

Under Insurance

If the value declared is less than the actual value of your property at the time of loss, then you will only be entitled to be paid that proportion of the loss which the value declared bears to the value of the property removed and/or stored.

Pairs and Sets

It is the intention to pay the actual value of individual items. It is not the intention to pay for items which are not affected. If, therefore, a claim is made for an item which is part of a pair or set, then Insurers will only pay the actual value of that item in isolation. The payment will be made without reference to any particular value the item might have acquired simply because it is part of a pair or set.

Insurers Rights

Subject to payment of the actual value of a damaged item by Insurers, they may at their discretion take over ownership of the property. No property may be abandoned to Insurers.

Fraud

If a claim is fraudulent in any way, it will not be paid. The insurance will be deemed not to have attached and no premium will be refunded.

Jurisdiction

The parties to this contract have the right to choose the law that should apply. Insurers choose to apply English Law except for those customers who at inception of the contract are domiciled in Scotland, Northern Ireland, Channel Islands or Isle of Man where their own law will apply.

Claims Notification

Any claim must be advised in detail to the Remover in writing within seven days of your removal or delivery from store. However if you arrange your own collection from store then any claim must be notified at the time of handing over.
